

PRIOR TO FILLING OUT ENTRY FORMS FOR 2010

Specific rules will be found at the beginning of some departments, divisions, and classes.

General Rules

1. The Fremont County Fair Board reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations, and their decision will be final.
2. Entries shall be limited to articles produced or made in Fremont County in 2009/2010 and the sole work of the exhibitor.
3. All exhibitors MUST RESIDE IN Fremont County with exceptions for Dressage, Agility Dog Shows, Barrel Racing, Ranch and Working Cow Horse Shows.
4. Exhibits must be entered on the standard entry blanks, available at the fair office and the extension offices. Junior Show, 4-H and FFA entry forms must be signed by a parent or guardian.
5. Entry tags are to be attached to each exhibit and must remain attached during the entire exhibition. Attach entry tag to the upper left corner of the exhibit when possible. Animals and contest divisions do not receive entry tags. All entry tags must be picked up at the Fair Office. Exhibitors must deliver their tags attached to the superintendent in charge.
6. Any individual entering an article in another name other than that of the bona fide owner, or misrepresenting any facts shall not be allowed to compete for or receive any premiums, and may be barred from any showing.
7. Erroneously entered exhibits may be transferred to the proper division prior to judging by the superintendent.
8. Only one entry from an individual will be allowed in any one class; unless otherwise specified in the division. Only articles for competition listed in this catalog will be accepted for entry.
9. Exhibitors will at all times, give the necessary personal attention to their exhibits during the fair and take charge of the same immediately after the close of fair.
10. The greatest care possible will be used by the Fremont County Fair Board to prevent loss, theft, or injury to any articles exhibited. In no case shall the Board become responsible for any loss by fire, theft or injury. Those desiring insurance on the entry must make their own arrangements for such coverage.
11. Only amateurs may compete in Open Class for prizes unless otherwise stated. Exceptions will be listed in each department. See Open Class definitions at the bottom of the page.
12. Grievances must be submitted in writing at the Fair Office.
13. Anyone removing an exhibit before the release times listed in this 2010 Fair Book without written permission from the Board will forfeit premiums.
14. Judges will have absolute control in the show ring or departments at the time of judging. No exhibitor or spectator may interfere with the judging of exhibits. The judge shall be empowered to give any individual exhibit second or third place even though it may be the only entry in that division. Decision of the judge shall be final, except in the case of fraud or protest.

In consideration of my participation in the Fremont County Fair, I do hereby (for myself or my executors and administrators) waive, release, and forever discharge the Fremont County Fair Board, the Fremont County Fair employees and volunteers, the Fremont County Extension Staff, and the Board of Commissioners of Fremont County from any and all legal claims or liability on my behalf for any loss, damage, or injuries to my person or property arising out of my participation in the Fremont County Fair. I understand that livestock can be both dangerous and unpredictable but willingly assume all risk of my participation in the Fremont County Fair. I further understand that I will be responsible for any damage done by my livestock. I agree to abide by current Wyoming State Animal Health rules and meet the Livestock Health and Brand Requirements.
